The Clarksville Gun Club Entertain Their Friends

In Handsome Style Last Night—A Jolly Crowd Partakes of a Bountiful Supper.

The Clarksville Gun Club capped off a pleasant and successful season of sport in handsome fashion last night, Caterer J. C. Mattill and a half score of white-jacketed waiters had their hands full for an hour and a half, supplying the wants of twenty convivial spirits for whom covers had been spread in his new restaurant in the Arlington block.

At the head of the long table sat Capt. Thos. Hyman, the club's vice-president, while J. G. Pickering, the club's efficient secretary, occupied a seat at the foot. The following members of the club were present: Capt. Hyman, J. S. Moore, Ed. Hyman, R. D. Caldwell, Ernest Elder, C. L. Bradley, J. G. Pickering, Chas. Williams, Ed. F. Pearce, Thos. Edwards, E. C. Bates, Lev. Young. The invited guests were: Crif. Caroland, B. M. Barksdale, A. C. Stafford, A. B. Riggins, Lee Pickering, D. D. Lynes, Mack Rieves and a LEAF-CHRONICLE reporter. Supper was ready at 7:45 and consisted of several courses. Oysters, meats, salads, cakes, cream, fruits, etc., were in abundance and were dispatched with amazing swiftness. An interesting feature were the toasts, to which there was a hearty response.

Two prizes were awarded for the best and worst shots respectively yesterday's shoot. Capt. Hyman got the first (two yards of blue ribbon made into a bow) and Ed. Hyman the second. E. C. Bates presented the first in an appropriate speech. A good deal of curiosity was felt as to the nature of the second prize, which lay on the table, and being carefully unwrapped it was handed over to the winner in a neat speech by his father. It was a huge bologna sausage, artistically embellished with ribbon. Ed. was slightly rattled by the laughter of the crowd, but said that he would put his prize to practical use.

The secretary of the club, J. G. Pickering, spoke briefly of the organization and congratulated the members that their relations had been so friendly and pleasant, and referred to the fact that he had always been a zealous promoter of its interests, and would continue to be. Much of the credit of last night's affair is due to Mr. Pickering's efforts, and he and Mr. Mattill received the unequalled thanks of all present for their able management of a very delightful re-union. The LEAF-CHRONICLE is indebted to them for special courtesies.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION

Of the Improved Order of Red Men in Session in Atlanta.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 30.—While there is no war cloud in the horizon, other than which will be settled at the election next week, the Indians have to day taken possession of Atlanta. They are white Indians and they are holding the national convention of the Improved Order of Red Men. Atlanta's mayor and Georgia's governor will do the welcoming and the responses will be made by the great Inchoonee, Thos. K. Donnelly and the great chief of records, Charles C. Conhey. The order was founded in 1772 and now numbers thirty great councils and 1,806 tribes. It has 111,644 members and has disbursed $13,000,000 in benefits since its organization. The ladies' branch also holds its great conclave to-day. It is known as "the Degree of Pocahontas," has 211 councils in twenty-one States with 16,268 members.

There has been a continued tendency to bowel disease here this season, says G. W. Shivel, druggist, Wickliffe, Ky., "and an unusual demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have sold four bottles of it this morning. Some remarkable cures have been effected by it and in all cases it has proved successful." For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

YOM KIPPUR.

The Great Fast Day of the Jewish Church Begins at Sunset.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

New York, Sept. 30.—To-night at sunset the great fast day of the Jewish Church begins. It is known as Yom Kippurim, the day of atonement and is the one holiday which is kept strictest by advanced and orthodox congregations as well. In New York the services at Temple Emanuel, where Rabbi Gotthelf preaches to the richest Hebrews in the world, the services will be especially impressive and the music of the choicest. This is always the first great holiday of the New Year, numbered now 5653.

There is nothing like Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil to quickly cure a cold or relieve hoarseness. Written by Mrs. M. J. Fellows, Burr Oak, St. Joseph county, Mich. Sold by Tudhope Drug Co.

JOHN SHERMAN

Will Wave the Bloody Shirt in Cincinnati To-night.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Senator John Sherman will make his first speech of the campaign in Huron county to-night, and it will be devoted largely to a defense of the silver issue in the Republican platform and to a defense more particularly of his own financial measures.

Comfort and ease in walking is a great luxury, and can be secured if you are troubled with corns, by using "C. C. C. Certain Corn Cure." Warrented. Sold by Owen & Moore.

THE ORPHAN BRIGADE

Some Interesting History About Its Organization

Brought Out by the Eleventh Reunion of Its Survivors, Held at Paris Thursday.

The Courier-Journal of Wednesday devoted over a page to the Eleventh reunion of the celebrated Orphan Brigade of Kentucky, held at Paris. In view of the fact that the old soldiers of this section loved every member of this famous brigade, the following bit of history, taken from the Courier-Journal, will be read with interest:

"In 1861 Kentucky was a State for which the Federals and Confederates played a game, partly political and partly military. The magnificent practical politics of Abraham Lincoln, practiced with a skill and a finesse that would have extorted the admiration of Machiavelli himself, won, and Kentucky was saved to the Union. Garrett Davis, James Guthrie, George D. Prentiss, Thomas E. Bramlette, Robert J. Breckinridge and Joseph R. Underwood conceived the deceptive policy of neutrality, and when it became apparent that neutrality was a cloak to dampen the Southern sentiment, the South had already lost the State. Nelson and Bramlette established Camp Dick Robinson, near Danville, and to it flocked thousands of Kentuckians and East Tennesseans who were enlisted, in the Federal armies. Gen. Rousseau established a similar camp just across the Ohio, at Jeffersonville, and to it flocked other Kentuckians. All this was done under the cloak of neutrality. John C. Breckinridge, Preston, Buckner, the Johnstons and other Southern leaders were forced to leave the State. They established a camp in Tennessee, near the State line, early in the summer of 1861, for the enlistment of Kentuckians in the Confederate service. Here were organized the Second (Col. Hawes) and Third (Col. Tilghman) Regiments of Kentucky Volunteer Infantry. C. S. A. Byrne's battery was also organized at Camp Boone. Not far away, at Camp Burnett, the Fourth Kentucky Infantry (Col. Traub) was organized. Col. Joseph H. Lewis formed a camp at Cave City, Ky., in September following, and here was recruited the Sixth Kentucky Infantry, and about the same time Col. Hunt recruited the Ninth Kentucky Infantry, on the lower Green river. In November, 1861, Col. John S. Williams—Cerro Gordo—recruited the Fifth, and Col. Ed Crossland the Seventh Regiments. These regiments were all the Kentucky troops that were ever attached to the Kentucky Brigade, but all of them were never incorporated in it at the same time. The Orphan Brigade proper, as it was organized after Murfreesboro, was composed of the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Ninth Regiments. The rank and file of the Kentucky Brigade embraced the very flower of Kentucky's young manhood. They were the squirehood and yeomanry of the proudest commonwealth in the sisterhood of the States. A noted scientist, discussing American manhood, says that the soil, climate and water of Kentucky are calculated to produce the finest race of men on the planet, and to illustrate his proposition he refers to the deeds of the Orphan Brigade in the Confederate service."

Buck's Barber Shop.

Wm. Buck, the barber, has recently fitted up his bath rooms anew and is better prepared than ever to give the public healthy baths. His rooms are clean and well ventilated and are supplied with the latest improvements. His barber shop also was never in better condition and was never supplied with a more competent force of barbers. For a good shave, excellent hair cut, shampoo or bath Buck's is the place to go. July 29,dtt.

Fine Tomato Vine.

Harvey Page has the finest tomato vine at home on College street that has been reported to the LEAF-CHRONICLE. It is fifteen feet high and measures twelve feet across the top. Mr. Page says he has gathered a bushel and a half of tomatoes from the vine, each of which weighed a pound, and there are still many tomatoes on it.

AN AUSPICIOUS DAY.

The Catholic Church Completed and Will Be Re-opened Sunday.

Sunday will be an auspicious day to the Catholics in Clarksville. Their church, which has been standing in an unfinished state for twelve years, has just been finished in an elegant and comfortable manner throughout, including new pews.

The re-opening will take place Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Rt. Rev. Joseph Rademacher, Bishop of this diocese, and Rev. P. J. Gleeson, of Nashville, under whose patronage the present church was erected, assisted by other visiting clergy and the pastor in charge, will conduct the opening service.

The Rev. P. J. Gleeson will also deliver a discourse at the evening services at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

HON. ERNEST PILLOW

Will Talk Democracy in Clarksville Monday Night.

The Entertainment Committee of the Young Men's Democratic Club has received a letter from Hon. Ernest Pillow, who has been invited to speak in Clarksville. Mr. Pillow will come Monday morning, and will speak at the opera house Monday night. Mr. Pillow is a good speaker and is a straight Democrat. He recently made a canvass in the Fifth Congressional district against Hon. Jas. D. Richardson, for Congress. He was defeated, however, but like a good Democrat, he is not making an independent race, but is talking straight Democracy. Give him a good crowd.

New house, new goods, but the same low prices, is the bill of fare Simon Katz is offering the public. Call on him. sep23,d&sw1w.

Orange Fair.

Tarsus Grange Fair will be held at Tarsus Grange Hall Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28 and 29.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS.—Be sure you get the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It cures colds, croup, asthma, deafness and rheumatism. Sold by Tudhope Drug Company.

MORE RECORD BREAKING

Mascott Goes a Mile in a Race In 2:04.

Three Seconds Below Any Mark Yet Made in a Race on Any Kind of Track.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., Sept. 30.—For the second time this week the 4:05 mark has been beaten in harness, the pacer Mascott putting in a heat yesterday afternoon in the same notch that Nancy Hanks touched Wednesday, when she trotted in 2:04. As the gelding did this in a race, starting from the outside, the performance surpassed that of the Kentucky mare in a point of merit, and on the quarter was a trifle faster, when Mascott stepped from the half to the third of the golden tipped posts in 29 1/2 seconds. The effort told on him so much that he did not get another heat of the free-for-all pace and Flying Jib, who carried the new champion along, was also defeated for the same reason. The pacer went lapped to the quarter in 32 1/2 seconds, the half in 1:02 1/2. Mascott drew away a little. The Californian closed from there and the clip became terrific. The three-quarters were covered in 1:33, or a 1:58 clip, and Flying Jib was at Mascott's shoulder when he finished in 2:04. This is three seconds below the race record for any kind of a track and placed the Buffalo flyer equal with Nancy Hanks herself.

THE ADVANCE GUARDS

Of the Democratic Clubs Arriving in New York.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The advance guards of the Democratic Clubs who are to take part in the League meeting and grand parade of the coming week will reach New York to-day and will be assigned quarters. From now until October 3d the local Democratic organization will have escorts stationed at all the depots, who are instructed to take charge of the Democratic deputations as they arrive. At the hotels just now every room is taken for the coming week, as well as for the week after when the great Columbian festivities take place, and private boarding houses are being registered at National Democratic Headquarters so that no one of the visitors who applies there will be without a place to lodge in.

A GREAT RACE.

Hal Pointer, Flying Jib and Mascot Will Come Together at Nashville.

Says the Banner: "A telegram from Terra Haute, Ind., states that Secretary Russwurm, of the local association, has arranged for a race between Hal Pointer, Mascot and Flying Jib as a special feature of the coming meeting. It is an acknowledged fact that Flying Jib is the most dangerous competitor now on the turf of the famous Tennessee side-wheeler, and a match between these two animals has been eagerly sought throughout the season. Mascot, too, by the remarkable performances through the Grand Circuit has almost an equal claim to championship honors, and a match race between the three will be the most important turf event of the season."

COL. JNO. R. FELLOWS.

The Forensic New Yorker to Speak To-night in Boston.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 30.—It is doubtful if Tremont Temple will be able to contain the crowd which will to-night listen to speeches from famous orators, who will formally open the State and National campaign for Massachusetts. Col. John R. Fellows, of New York, and Gov. Russell will be the principal speakers.

A New Time Card.

A new time card will go into effect on the Memphis branch of the L. & N. Sunday. It is understood that the train which arrives here at 9:45 p. m. will be changed to 10:10 p. m. This change is made, it is supposed, in the interest of better St. Louis connections. Under the new arrangement Clarksville people who go to Nashville and return the same day will not have to lay over at Guthrie and will have nearly three hours longer to stay in Nashville.
